

Materials Lab

Choose an object, name and sketch it and describe its function.

In terms of materials used, constraints, deformations, properties and other factors, explain why the object was constructed the way it was, including listing advantages and disadvantages.